IT DOES NOT MATTER WHO THEY SEE ME AS

In reality, I don't fit who I'm supposed to be, by definition of what one sees or expects of me. But it does not matter who they see me as, as long as I know who I am and what good I can do where I am. Let nothing design or set my rules: not looks, faith, art, job, house, money or society. In the end, it is my God, wife, son, truth and love (with NOTHING in between them and me) that is all that matters to me.
